NADA Miami 2019 | Dec. 5-8 | Booth 12.06

Presenting the works of Iris Eichenberg and Neha Vedpathak

For NADA Miami 2019 Simone DeSousa Gallery brings together the works of two Detroit-based artists, Indian artist Neha Vedpathak and German artist Iris Eichenberg.

Both Vedpathak's and Eichenberg's works reference ritualistic characteristics of certain kinds of manual labor that are attributed to the feminine, yet in both the traditional goal of beauty is defied, and gives place to unsettled new readings.

Vedpathak's vigorously plucked pieces are in direct conversation with Eichenberg's disheveled, oddly scaled, yarn tables. The works evoke a sensual and unapologetic inharmonious tone.

Through the reductive "sculpting" of surfaces, as well as cumulative mark making, both artists reference time, and invite an experience that is intimate and sensory.

Vedpathak and Eichenberg's works deliberately disrupt classic ideas of landscape and portraiture, as well as perceptions of femininity, and the notion of elevated forms of expression.

Iris Eichenberg

Iris Eichenberg (b. 1965, Göttingen, Germany). After graduating from the Gerrit Rietveld Academie in Amsterdam in 1994, Iris Eichenberg worked as an independent artist, art educator, part-time curator, and organizer of art-related events. She then taught at the Gerrit Rietveld Academie from 1996 to 2006. In 2006 she accepted an appointment as Artist-in-Residence and Head of the Metalsmithing Department at Cranbrook Academy of Art in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, and has been teaching there full time since.

As part of her practice, Eichenberg has been regularly invited to lecture, act as visiting critic, and give workshops at various art programs in Europe, Asia, Africa, North and South America, through the support of cultural institutions including: Netherlands Foundation for Visual Arts, Design and Architecture, Amsterdam Fund for the Arts, Herbert Hofmann Prize, Gerrit Rietveld Academy Award, and The European Ceramic Center in Den Bosch.

Eichenberg's work can be found in several museums including The Cooper-Hewitt (New York), The Museum of Arts and Design (New York), The Rijksmuseum (Amsterdam), The Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York), the Stedelijk Museum (Amsterdam), the Schmuck Museum Pforzheim, the Fondation National d'Art Contemporain (Paris), and the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston (Texas). Her work has also been collected by private foundations including the Francoise van der Bosch Stichting (Amsterdam) and the Rotasa Foundation (California).
